

àlọ — Shrine of Tales

Brand Style Guide (v1.0)

1. 🧠 Brand Essence

Core Identity

àlọ is a digital storytelling shrine where African imagination, poetry, fiction, comics, and cinematic AI stories live.

It is:

- a literary space
 - a creative archive
 - a storytelling community
 - a digital “fire circle” for writers

Brand Personality

Trait	Description
Poetic	Everything feels like literature
Sacred	Stories are treated like offerings
African-rooted	Inspired by Yoruba storytelling tradition
Cinematic	Visual storytelling + AI films
Calm	Not noisy, not social-media chaotic
Artistic	Design-first, typography-led

Brand Emotion

Users should feel:

- “I’ve entered a storytelling space”
- “This is not just a website”
- “Stories here matter”

2. Logo System

Primary Logo

4. Typography System

Typography is the core of a company's identity.

Primary Font (Logo & Headings)

Recommended Style:

Elegant Serif (literary, editorial)

Examples:

- Canela
 - Cormorant Garamond
 - Playfair Display
 - Noe Display (premium feel)

Body Text Font

Clean readability sans-serif:

- Inter
 - Source Sans 3
 - IBM Plex Sans

Accent / Poetry Font

Used for:

- poems
- quotes
- haiku

Style:

- italic serif
- slightly handwritten feel

Typographic Rules

- Headings: Serif only
- Body: Sans-serif only
- Poetry: Italic serif allowed
- Never mix more than 2 fonts per page

5. Layout & UI Style

Design Philosophy

“Digital shrine, not social feed.”

Spacing System

- Large whitespace
- Calm breathing room
- No cluttered UI

Grid Style

- 1 column reading focus
- 2–3 column for discovery pages
- Cards used sparingly

Card Style

- soft edges (12–16px radius)
 - minimal shadows
 - paper-like texture optional

6. 🌙 Visual Language

Core Imagery Style

- candlelight glow
 - ink on paper
 - African night storytelling
 - shadows + warmth
 - cinematic stills

Illustration Style

- minimal line art
- abstract African motifs
- symbolic storytelling visuals

Avoid:

- overly cartoonish UI
 - heavy stock imagery

7. ✨ Iconography

Style Rules

- thin stroke icons
 - rounded edges
 - minimal detail
 - consistent line weight

Icon Themes

- flame (stories / memory)
- drum (voice / communication)
- eye (vision / imagination)
- book (archives)

- moon (storytelling night tradition)

8. Tone of Voice

Writing Style

àlô speaks like:

- a storyteller
 - a quiet narrator
 - a literary curator

Example Tone

Instead of:

“Upload your story”

Say:

“Offer your story to the shrine”

Instead of:

“Trending posts”

Say:

“Stories being remembered”

Instead of:

“Join community”

Say:

“Enter the circle of storytellers”
